Resolution in Opposition to MDUSD School Board Recall

Whereas, each MDUSD School Board Trustee has been duly elected in a proper election; and

Whereas, each MDUSD School Board Trustee has faithfully performed the duties of their positions and made decisions and voted in the best interests of students over their term; and

Whereas, the current proposed recall is motivated by anger and is destructive to the body politic; and

Whereas, if the recall is required, the special election process will require the district to spend up to $1.9 Million of district funds on ballots and processing fees; and

Whereas, this frivolous recall will siphon hundreds of thousands from student programs; and

Whereas, this unnecessary recall will absorb management and board attention and effort, which would be better used ensuring the safe, secure and efficient return to in-person learning district wide.

Therefore, be it resolved that the Contra Costa Labor Council, AFL-CIO hereby states our firm opposition to the current efforts to recall the MDUSD School Board Trustees.

Submitted by President Anita Johnson, CTA-MDEA

Adopted by the delegates of the Contra Costa Labor Council, AFL-CIO on June 16th, 2021.
